

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's) for Summer Practices;

Q1. Can trainees take Arch290 (survey) and Arch390 (office) together in the same summer break?

A1.

* Trainee can only do both Arch290 (survey) and Arch390 (office) in the same summer break; if the trainee is not taking summer school.

UPON THE CONVERSATION WITH REGISTRAR'S OFFICE YOU CAN NOT DIVIDE SUMMER PRACTICE INTO TWO PERIODS. YOU CAN TAKE ONLY SUMMER PRACTICE OR SUMMER SCHOOL. YOU CAN NOT DO BOTH IN THIS SUMMER PERIOD.

*The trainee is also able to take one of the summer practices in February break as well.

Note; those, who try to take Arch290 and Arch390 summer practices together with summer school, will be noticed and then one of the summer practices submission of trainees will not be evaluated.

Q2. When is the last day of taking approval from the Department of Architecture Authorities?

A2.

Before the first day of final exams.

“The date for taking approval from the department authorities has extended for only this semester because of COVID situation (Look to Q3)”

Note: The trainee is required to find the company and fill the form accordingly.

Q3. When is the last day of taking approval from the Department of Architecture Authorities in this COVID situation?

A3.

The 20th of July is the last day for taking the approved (this is only for this semester).

Q4. When is the last day of finalizing insurance approval issues in these COVID situations?

A4.

The 20th of July is the last day for finalizing the insurance issues (this is only for this semester).

Note: The same regulations are valid for the insurance issues)

Q5. How are the payment regulations for Insurance issues? Is the company supposed to pay the insurance?

A5.

The trainee supposed to contact the EMU Registration Office to get the information about the process of insurance issues.